Division of Criminal Justice Academy

The Division of Criminal Justice Academy has been a Police Training Commission approved academy since 1980. Established originally to conduct the Basic Course for Investigators, the Division of Criminal Justice Academy has expanded its curriculum to include other PTC approved courses, such as the revised Modified Basic Course for Investigators, Methods of Instruction Course, and arson investigation courses. In addition, the Academy conducts a wide variety of specialty and management development courses not generally available at other police academies. The Academy also provides continuing education to state investigators and deputy attorneys general from the Division of Criminal Justice.

Course Registration

To register for a course, submit a copy of the registration form located at the end of the catalog. To assist in planning course enrollment and providing confirmation of enrollment, when possible, registrations should be submitted at least 30 days prior to the course start date. For tuition courses, please submit an agency check or payment voucher with the registration or upon confirmation of course enrollment. (All payments for all courses should be made payable to the Division of Criminal Justice Academy, and mailed to: P.O. Box 085, Trenton, New Jersey 08625.) Additional courses may be added throughout the year and will be announced on the Division's website (www.njdcj.org). Police agencies are encouraged to check the website for information concerning additional upcoming training and course descriptions.

Registration Confirmation

Written confirmation of course enrollment will be mailed to individual registrants approximately three weeks prior to the course start date. To attend courses, individuals must receive confirmation of enrollment from the DCJ academy. Since many courses have limited enrollment, admission can not be guaranteed without prior confirmation. Send ALL course registrations and course payments to the address below. No registrations or tuition payments should be mailed to the Academy offices in Sea Girt.

TRAINING SCHEDULE – 2004

Street Encounters, Stops and Frisks

This course is intended for assistant prosecutors and others who instruct police officers on the legal aspects of inquiries, stops and frisks. It focuses closely on the distinctions between an inquiry and a Terry stop, how reasonable suspicion is determined, and how the Terry stop has been expanded to cover more than people. It also examines the criteria for a frisk and discusses the plain touch concept approved by the federal Supreme Court. Throughout the course, innovative teaching techniques and procedures will be offered, along with helpful suggestions for instructing new or veteran officers.

Who should attend: Assistant prosecutors, deputy attorneys general, police instructors.

Cost: No charge

Date(s):	2/25/04	(Burlington County College, Police Academy)
	5/10/04	(Union County Police Academy)
	11/17/04	(Union County Police Academy)

Structuring the Law Enforcement Agency

A current and meaningful table of organization is essential for making the most efficient use of limited police resources. The program focuses on the use of patrol workload and staffing as the fundamental basis in determining a viable structure for a municipal police department. The course covers the practical application of concepts such as unity of command and span of control. The course provides a brief overview of organizational concepts, how to determine whether specialization is justified, the process for determining personnel requirements and the number of supervisors required. Attendees are instructed on how to draft a table of organization chart, as well as how to develop unit and position job descriptions.

Who should attend: Municipal law enforcement executives and command level personnel directly responsible for establishing their agency's table of organization.

Cost: No charge
